JIM & ROBIN HARPER

Your Host

As your host for this conference, we want to welcome you! We are simply a local couple who by not following God's design for marriage, has personally learned how important it is to keep investing in your marriage, and we're grateful for the restoration Christ has brought to our relationship. Because of this renewal, we are committed to challenge other couples in the tri-state area to make an intentional yearly investment in their marriages. We invite you to join us in discovering how to build a strong marriage through this 7 session video series.
